THE TROPHY GIRL

Cool and hot girl everybody talks about. All want to be friends with her. 'She is on a billboard.'

Be ready to take her out for dinner, give her surprises, spend on her and provide the emotional support she needs. Dating her is tough.

Working professionals bring her food every Friday. She is the center of attention because she is in on a billboard and in a TV commercial. Be ready.

She'll ditch you if you not up to standards. The queue is long enough.

02

THE TOM BOY

Queens of the friend zone. She hangs out with the guys like nobody's business, she doesn't worry about makeup and Brazilian weaves.

She maybe raps, plays basketball or is a DJ. She's your homie. Relate to her like one of your guys

THE SPOILT ONE

Her new MacBook was purchased from Amazon, she got the iPhone X even before it was launched.

She has one in a room accommodation that's almost a tourist attraction. She drives a car your parents bought in their 50's. She needs nothing.

The truth about the source of her wealth is drowned in rumors like her mum was an MP, her uncle is the President.

A rich sponsor pays for everything. She hardly makes friends but Bra Fuckboy will find his way into her heart, help her spend her money and leave her quick enough.

04

FIRST CLASS MADAM

If you are not talking about academics, then don't talk to her. She works too hard when it comes to academia and has no time to socialize.

Most of her days are spent in the library and tutorial classes. Her kinda fun is going for outreach programs and camping activities organized by her church. Your GPA needs to be higher than hers or be on the same level.

She needs study mates, offer her academic assistance and support and you will be friends with her. As for dating her, it may take a while but hold on my brother. Your patience will pay off one day.

THE REBELLIOUS HARDCORE CHICK

She is everything her parents warned her against. She is a typical definition of good girl gone bad.

Sheltered in high school, tends to go crazy.

She always hates going home on holidays. She is the first to come to school and the last to leave campus.

She loves the idea of sleepovers and just wants to have fun. FUN FUN FUN. Get yourself a ride and she will roll with you.

06

THE PARTY GIRL

The one who has been to all the hot parties on campus, she is fashion conscious and doesn't go a day without her makeup, sleek human hair extensions and nails.

Her snap chat is hot with 1,000+ followers, she also knows all the cool guys on campus and is barely in class. Back off!

College students are not her league unless of course you are a socialite and can sponsor some of her airtime, makeup and weaves.

She won't roll with you if you don't have a car on campus and you have an upper hand, if you can get her into all the coolest and hyped parties on campus

LIVE BY VIM

We love the innovators, the dream chasers, the ones who start embarking on their passions even at an early age.

They are the ones who make our lives better and change our world.

We decided to feature a few of them in different universities because we respect their vim.

iPHONE DJ

Who says you always need a Laptop to turn up the crowd at a party? Definitely not DJ Otu Mensah. The second year student in Legon started playing around with DJ software on his iPhone and just mixing music he loved for fun. 11 months later, the crowds at parties like Phantom, Shutdown, All-White Halloween and Soho have all jammed to a DJ with just an iPhone. He loves good music and making the crowd happy. When he is not turning people up, he loves to play FIFA with his friends.

U GOT SERVED BY DELALI

Exuberant, Talented, Unique. That's how Delali chooses to describe herself. And honestly, she walks the talk in so many ways. In her third year at KNUST, Delali Hodey has a startup that specializes in baking and delivering cupcakes to universities in Accra and Kumasi. With a lot of support from her mum, Delali wants to grow her business into an international brand. Delali also helps out with an NGO called SMILE, which seeks to help the less privileged children.

THE 7TH ARTIST

Chris is the kind of guy to get you all excited, bumping to some beat and later admiring the nuances of Art. The 4th year student at Central University started drawing as a child and later picked music production in JSS. These days he specializes in pencil and digital Art and also produces Afropop music. The beauty of life inspires him to draw and make good music. When he is not drawing or producing music, he is either sleeping or reading. Kindly follow him on @7th_artist on both Instagram and Twitter.

WAFFLES ON THE HILL

For a year now, members of the Ashesi community have been enjoying the most delightful waffles and pancakes. This is because two friends, Abena Pokuaa Bandoh and Maliha Zisung Abdulai decided to take their childhood passions for baking a little more seriously. Both in their third year, they decided a year ago to bake waffles to save members of Ashesi community the stress of travelling to Accra to buy waffles. Starting off with solely Vanilla waffles, they have included other flavours and cupcakes to serve their fast growing market. Follow them
